

Jim Woodrow - If I could Unburn Bridges

(Chorus) - D, D, C, G

If I could unburn bridges, on this road we're travelling on, there'd be a lot more noise complaints from the neighbours that went wrong.
Three, two, one disintegrate, eject, eject, evacuate.
Global leaders, mistakes were made, ground control to major Tom.

(Verse 1) - A, E, A, E, A, E, G, A

We listen to our hearts until our brain points out the fears, things come back to haunt us, things we really knew for years,
dancing in our memories like we can't put out the flames,
time goes on and balance keeps the beast inside us tame.

(Verse 2)

I feel a deep connection with the same old tired mistakes, but the ones I learned from years ago are the ones that kept me safe,
simple freedoms taken from the ones who've had their days, some say it's easier when you're gone, now you're filling in their grave.

(Verse 3)

The chain I carry with me is a reminder of what went wrong, love, hate, noose, flames, the fear we're running from,
keep this life full of colour before it fades into the ground,
the deeds were cheap and dirty but it saw me from town to town.

(the long road we're on in life can be tough, keep going.
living life teaches us things constantly, we lose friends along the way and find others who are still surviving..)
