

Jim Woodrow - This Song's For Tomorrow

(Chorus) - E, A, E, A, E, A, F, C

Hold on to the lives you've got for tonight
if you can't smile now, this song's for tomorrow
It was the music that put a smile on my face and I hope that it puts one on yours too someday.

(Verse) - A, E, A, E

We could all go far in life,
sometimes things get in the way,
some fall hard and some keep going,
others choose to turn and run away.

(Verse 2)

Falling through the cracks,
society keeps on walking past,
looking behind the curtain,
it's torn but no one looks much further.

(Verse 3)

When life has gone to shit,
don't throw away what can't be replaced,
remember you are worth much more,
living, something worth fighting for.

(music has given me something to hold on to when life seemed impossible so hopefully this carries that sentiment)
